Thank you for your interest in visiting a class during your visit to Emory University!

Prospective high school students who are interested in visiting a class during their Spring 2017 Emory University campus visit may do so during most weekdays between Monday, February 13 and Friday, April 21.

Please note that class visits will not be available on the following days due to University holidays, special event programming, or other Admission staff commitments:

- Friday March 3  \hspace{1cm} Spring Break
- Monday March 6  \hspace{1cm} Spring Break
- Tuesday March 7  \hspace{1cm} Spring Break
- Wednesday March 8  \hspace{1cm} Spring Break
- Thursday March 9  \hspace{1cm} Spring Break
- Friday March 10  \hspace{1cm} Spring Break
- Wednesday April 5  \hspace{1cm} Special Event Programming
- Wednesday April 12  \hspace{1cm} Special Event Programming
- Friday April 14  \hspace{1cm} Special Event Programming

Please be aware that circumstances are subject to change and the availability of classes may be limited. The Office of Undergraduate Admission reserves the right to change the availability schedule and not offer class visits on additional dates not listed above.

Students may only visit classes that have been approved by the Office of Undergraduate Admission. The earliest time a prospective student can attend a class will be 9:00 a.m. Check in for class visits will not be permitted before 8:30 a.m. Please keep in mind that most of the classes offered through our class visit program will take place before 2:00 p.m.

Please review the Classroom Visitation Guidelines below:

1. Due to classroom limitations, only prospective students may attend Emory classes.

2. Arrive at the class at least 15 minutes before the scheduled start time. If the class has already begun, you will not be able to attend the class. In the event that you are late to the class, return to the Office of Undergraduate Admission and select a different class to attend.

3. Introduce yourself to the professor and let them know that you are a prospective student visiting campus.

4. Please turn off your cell phone before class begins and refrain from using other technology unless instructed to do so by the faculty member.

5. Please do not bring any food into the classroom.

6. You will need to stay for the entire class – please plan your schedule accordingly.

7. After reading through and acknowledging the guidelines, you will sign the Undergraduate Admission Office Class Visit Record Log.

8. After signing and acknowledging the classroom visitation guidelines record log, enjoy your class visit!
In order to register for a course, please follow the instructions below:

1. Arrive at the Office of Undergraduate Admission (no earlier than 8:30 a.m.), check in at the front desk, and you will be provided with a list of available classes.

2. Select a class from the list of approved classes.

3. Sign the Classroom Visitation Guidelines form acknowledging and agreeing to the policies set forth by the Office of Undergraduate Admission Class Visit Program.

4. After reading through and acknowledging the guidelines, you will sign the Undergraduate Admission Office Class Visit Record Log.

5. Arrive to your class 15 minutes before the start time of your selected class.

6. Enjoy your visit!

If you have any questions regarding our class visit program, please contact admission@emory.edu.